PRC Announces New Juried Photography Exhibition: Unconventional Inventions Satellite Exhibition at Endicott College in Spring 2013

The Photographic Resource Center at Boston University (PRC) is partnering with Endicott College School of Visual and Performing Arts in this exciting call for entries and exhibition.

What: This riveting show will feature artists who take unconventional and innovative approaches to photography by pushing the boundaries of the medium, using alternative or new processes and techniques, integrating photography with other arts or new technologies, or experimenting with scale or frame. We are open to all work considered "outside the box" as Unconventional Inventions will celebrate photography's wonderful eccentricities. Six to eight photographers will be selected from the entries by esteemed jurors from the Boston photography community.

When: The exhibition will run from March 11 – April 26, 2013. The opening night reception is scheduled for Thursday, March 14, 2013 from 5:00 – 8:00 pm.

Where: The show will be featured at Endicott College's Carol Grillo Gallery in the Walter J. Manninen Center for the Arts, located at 376 Hale Street, Beverly, MA 01915.

Jurors:

Francine Weiss, PRC Curator & Loupe Editor

Howard Yezerski, Director, Howard Yezerski Gallery (Boston, MA)

Christopher James, Director of MFA Program in Photography and Photography Department Chair, Art Institute of Boston at Lesley University

Submissions: We seek submissions from photographers and other artists who are working in or with photography while also expanding upon the expressive abilities of the medium. To submit work for this call for entries, you must be a member of the PRC through June 2013. Membership information and benefits can be found on our website. Artists are asked to submit up to ten images and an artist statement. Submissions opened on Friday, October 26, 2012.

Entry Fee: $25

Submissions Deadline: Monday, December 3, 2012, 11:59 pm

About the PRC: For more than 35 years, the Photographic Resource Center (PRC) has been the center for creative photography in New England. Leading American photographers, critics, curators, and writers have exhibited, given lectures, and worked at the PRC since its founding in 1976. Today the PRC is housed on the campus of Boston University and features a gallery, lecture series, workshops, portfolio reviews, an online gallery Northeastern Exposure Online (NEO), and publishes its respected magazine, Loupe, three times a year. Boston is home to a dynamic photography community of artists, galleries, critics, museums, and educational institutions, and all come together around the PRC to celebrate photography.
